DOORS OPEN 5:30, CONCERT AT 7:00

THE SHELLING AND LOSS OF CIVILIAN/MILITARY LIVES WAS ONE OF THE OPENING EVENTS OF WW1.

We hope to remind our audience of the hard time endured by the Hartlepool families affected by this attack. We have a new commission, "Headland Overture" that accurately portrays the atmosphere of that fateful morning.

There will be a music programme to suit all ages, with traditional, modern and premieres. Come along and be entertained. Heugh battery artefacts on display prior to the concert.
